

Jeffrey Sampsell. - Keith Sampsell.

758.

By Mr. Fiorro:

You may be excused, that means you don't wait around, but please send your brother in.

KEITH SAMPSELL, being duly sworn according to law, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

By Mr. Fiorro:

Q. What is your name?

A. Keith Sampsell.

Q. Where do you live, Keith?

A. 2215 West Mountain Avenue.

Q. Now, how old are you?

A. 17.

Q. Do you know Kim Hubbard?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you know Paul Bubb?

A. Yes.

Q. You recall that last October 19th, don't you?

A. Yes.

Q. Primarily that is because school was out and that is when Jennifer disappeared?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know what you were doing that afternoon?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you know who you were with that afternoon?

A. Yes, I was mostly with Paul Bubb.

Q. How about your brother?

Keith Sampsell.

A. I was with him too.

Q. Concerning West Central Avenue, were you on that street?

A. Yes.

Q. Riding or walking?

A. Riding.

Q. Whose car?

A. Paul Bubb's car.

Q. Who was driving?

A. Paul Bubb.

Q. What time were you on West Central Avenue, do you know?

A. I would say it was around five of four.

Q. You would say it was five of four?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you see anybody that you knew?

A. Yes.

Q. Who?

A. Mike Grimes.

Q. What?

A. Michael Grimes.

Q. Did you talk to him?

A. Well, I didn't talk to him.

Q. Who did?

A. Paul did.

Q. But did you see Michael Grimes?

A. Yes.

Keith Sampsell.

Q. What was he doing?

A. He was underneath his car.

Q. What conversation did you hear pass between Paul and Michael?

A. He just said "Hello", and he just said "Hello", and we left.

Q. Where did you go from there?

A. Back up to Paul's house.

Q. Cross examination.

By The Court:

Mr. Ertel?

CROSS EXAMINATION

By Mr. Ertel:

Q. How long were you at Paul's house?

A. When do you mean?

Q. When you went back up there?

A. I would say maybe 15 or 20 minutes.

Q. What did you do at Paul's house?

A. I was just talking to him, I couldn't say what I was talking about.

Q. What time did you have to be home that day?

A. Oh, I was supposed to go to work that day around, well I was supposed to be at work at 4:00, but I never went in until later.

Q. So you stayed at Paul Bubb's house for 20 minutes you say, approximately?

A. Yes. I think so.

Keith Sampsell.

Q. Then where did you go?

A. Then I went to work that day.

Q. How did you get to work?

A. I drove my car.

Q. Where do you work?

A. Rishel's.

Q. Did, do you punch a time clock there?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, do you remember talking to Officer Barto?

A. Yes.

Q. He asked you about October 19th, didn't he?

A. Right.

Q. You told him you don't remember seeing either
Kim Hubbard or Mike Grimes on that day?

A. I said I was not sure.

Q. Did you say you didn't remember seeing Mike
Grimes working on his car?

A. I said I didn't at that time, I didn't remember, but I put more thought into it, because I was not that concerned.

Q. That was on the 13th of February you talked to him?

A. Who?

Q. Officer Barto?

A. Yes.

Q. Incidentally, when you talked to Mike Grimes what did he tell you what was he working on?

A. He was working on the starter on his car.

Keith Sampsell.

A. No, he did not tell me that.

Q. He didn't tell you that?

A. No.

Q. Did he tell anybody else?

A. He told me this a couple of days after.

Q. He told you a couple days later?

A. Yes, you know, like we talked later on.

Q. Well, did you say what you did is saw him on the 19th and a couple of days later after the 19th you say he told you he was working on a starter?

A. Yes, it could have been later, I am not sure.

Q. You recall him telling you that?

A. Yes, I knew it was a starter though.

Q. Did you tell Officer Barto that?

A. No, that is how I remembered.

Q. That is before you talked to Officer Barto, wasn't it?

A. Right....no, wait a minute, what are you saying?

Q. When did he tell you he was working on a starter?

A. I don't remember when he told me that.

Q. Was it a few days after October 19th?

A. It could have been.

Q. Was it a week after?

A. I am not sure.

Q. Was it within a month?

A. Probably.

Q. Well, you had talked to him before you talked to

Keith Sampsell.

Officer Barto then, had you not?

A. Yes.

Q. You didn't tell Officer Barto you had this conversation, so you knew he was working on a starter on the 19th?

A. I didn't remember at that time.

Q. Who reminded you of this?

A. Paul did.

Q. He came and told you?

A. Yes, he told me. You know, you would not have remembered it, it is just something, he works, you know, like everybody works on their car, you know.

Q. Well, Officer Barto gave you an opportunity to think, did he not, when he talked to you?

A. Oh, yes, but see like that day I was working on a car, I was in a rush, I didn't have hardly any time.

Q. Incidentally, what did you converse about there at the time when you saw him on the street?

A. You mean the 19th?

Q. Yes?

A. We didn't, I just said, you know, Paul said "Hello", and that was it.

Q. Did Mike Grimes get out from underneath the car?

A. No.

Q. He stayed under the car?

A. Yes.

Q. He never got up and talked to you?

Keith Sampsell. - Robert Fries.

Q. How do you know it was Mike Grimes?

A. Because he turned and looked and said "Hello".

Q. Was he underneath the car?

A. Yes.

Q. Could you see his face?

A. Yes.

Q. Was he underneath the car or underneath the hood?

A. Underneath the car.

Q. Underneath the car?

A. Yes, laying towards the outside.

Q. No further questions.

By Mr. Fierro:

That is all, step down. May he be excused?

By Mr. Ertel:

Yes.

(Excused from witness stand.).

ROBERT O. FRIES, being duly sworn according to law, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

By Mr. Fierro:

Q. What is your name?

A. Robert Otto Fries, II.

Q. Bob, do you know Kim Hubbard?

A. Yes.

Q. How old are you?

A. 17.

Q. Where do you live?