By Mr. Fierro:

Q. What is your name?

A. Harold Wilson.

Q. Where do you live, Harold?

A. 1801 Riverside Drive.

Q. Harold, last October 20th was a Saturday, during that afternoon do you know where you were and what you were doing?

A. Yes, earlier in the evening I had just came in off of the road from driving truck and I was visiting a friend of mine, and he was out, he is on fire call, and he was asked to come to help go on a search party, so I took his call and went in his place.

Q. Where were you that Saturday afternoon?

A. I went down to the Independent Fire Hall, I think that is the name of it. I don't know the names of the three, because I am new in this part of the country, but I went to the Fire Hall, I was told to go to, to be organized into a search party to search for a missing girl.

Q. While you were at this fire hall, whichever one it may have been, did you see Kim Hubbard?

A. Yes, he came in and was introduced to me by his Father.

Q. Did you exchange greetings with him or have any conversation with him?

A. Just to speak to him and say "Glad to meet you.", and he had his girl with him at the time.

Q. How close were you to Kim?

A. Oh, I would say the closest was four feet.

Q. Did you have an opportunity to observe his hands and face?

A. Yes, Sir, I did.

Q. Did you see any marks on his hands or face?

A. No, Sir, I did not.

Q. Did he speak to you when you were introduced to each other?

A. Yes, he said, I don't remember the exact first words he said, but he either said, "Howdy" or "Hello" and he said, "I am glad to meet you."

Harold Wilson.

Q. Did you observe his behaviour, his demeanor?

A. Yes, I would say in my own opinion I hope my boy when he grows up to be this age is as nice as he is.

By Mr. Ertel :

Objection.

By The Court:

Sustained.

By Mr. Fierro:

Q. How did he behave?
